JUNE 1993

For, by, and about the people of Antrim

Volume 2, Number 3

Welcome to Our New Recreation Director!

Jane Jackson, Antrim's newly hired Recreation Director, can be found in her office in the Community Center at the Town Gym on Thursday, Friday, and Saturday of each week. Her phone number is 588-3121. Jane is essentially an environmentalist as well as recreation director. Her background includes work at the MacDowell Dam in Peterborough, 3 years with the Army Corps of Engineers at Hopkinton Dam, work with the National Park Service, and Trail Maintenance through the Harris Center. Jane lives in Concord.

Beginner billiards lessons will be given the first Thursday of every month, starting June 3. Two classes of one-hour lessons (4 children per class) will be given from 6-8 pm. There is no cost but registration is required. John Regan is the instructor, and Antrim residents have first preference. Classes will be held in the Community Center at the Town Gym.

The Community Center is open Thursday, Friday, and Saturday afternoons and Friday and Saturday evenings until 9 pm. To register for billiard lessons, call Jane at 588-3121 during these hours.

Tennis lessons are tentatively being planned. For more information, call Jane at the Center.

Swimming lessons are being set for the first two weeks in July. Register through the lifeguards on duty at the town beach.

Welcome, Jane, and thanks to the volunteers who make the program happen.

People

Congratulations...

Fox Run Farm was selected as the Weeks 1992 Milk Producer of the Year. Owned and operated by C. David Platt and sons Chris and Steve, the farm has been in operation for 33 years, milking approximately 90 Holstein cows. Fox Run Farm is the last dairy farm still in business in the Antrim area which once had several farms with milking herds.

Stephen Adams, Jr., of Antrim was recently honored with an award for the highest average points for a junior member of the N.H. Jersey Cattle Club. Stephen spent almost every weekend last summer and fall showing his prize Jersey cow at fairs throughout the state.

Antrim Village says Good-by...

Antrim Village says good-by to Pam Bagloe who is leaving her post at the Village after eight years of caring for the tenants' interests. She served as Director of Human Services and Management, acting as a "facilitator" for the Village Association. Her gift shop business is taking more of her time and energy, so she will be leaving the Village about July 1. Best wishes, Pam!

Vibes, Anyone?

Local folks are feeling some vibes that promise something interesting is going to transpire in town "pro bono publico". Seems to have something to do with town pride. The vibes seem to emanate from the direction of Bruce Cuddihy. Might be worth asking Bruce a question or two. Very interesting.

Antrim Folk Tales

Pitching Hay

One day, while comparing notes with Carroll Johnson, he began this story about Ben Tenney and Tom Whitney. Ben, the grandfather of our own Eric and Mark Tenney, was a successful farmer who annually hired Tom to help with the haying. Ben had a lame leg and always limped. Tom Whitney was a character, an independent cuss who hired out just to keep body and soul together.

When it came to unloading a hay wagon in the barn, the helpers would climb into the hay mows while Ben stayed on the wagon to pitch off. One hot day, Ben was pitching hay off the wagon, and Tom was way up in the top of the barn. All of a sudden Tom called down, "Ben! Ben! You come up here!" Ben said he couldn't do that, he had to unload the hay. Tom said again, "Ben, you come up here right this minute."

Ben resisted, Tom insisted, and finally Ben felt obliged to humor his helper. He dropped his pitchfork, laboriously climbed off the wagon onto the first hay mow, then up the ladder to the second one, and thence over mounded piles of hay to join Tom who was standing by a west-facing window at the very peak of the barn. "Ben, Ben," said Tom. "Now, Ben, you look out there to the west. Look at those clouds, Ben. Now, Ben...ain't that restful?"

-Richard Winslow

Richard's Winslow's column, Folk Tales, will feature stories of people and events in Antrim and neighboring towns. He will be happy to have anyone's input. Call him at 588-2498.

Master Plan Update

The Antrim Planning Board has begun the important task of updating the town's Master Plan. Required by state law, Master Plans help towns to project future land-use patterns as well as identify existing problems and needs. They lay out general land-use goals that are then implemented by zoning ordinances, capital improvements, and other public or private efforts. Antrim's Master Plan was last updated in 1985.

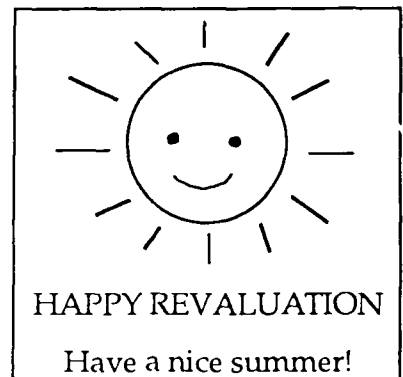

Throughout the rest of this year and well into the next, the Planning Board will seek citizen input by holding numerous public hearings and distributing a questionnaire. In addition, town department heads are being asked to identify problems and recommend changes in such areas as police protection, sewer and water, conservation, and taxation. The Planning Board also intends to make a special effort to address Antrim's depressed business climate.

We urge all Antrim residents to participate in the Master Planning process. Dates for public hearings will soon be publicized in the Peterborough Transcript and at the Town Hall. Copies of the existing Master Plan may be read at the Tuttle Library. Additional copies are for sale at the Town Hall for $10.

With strong citizen involvement, we can create a Master Plan that serves as an action plan for helping Antrim become a more vibrant, well-rounded community.

—David Essex, Chairman
Antrim Planning Board

The Arts

Antrim Players Cast Fiddler on the Roof

Casting has been completed for the Antrim Players' production of Fiddler on the Roof to be presented in the Town Hall August 4-7. Susan Bartlett is directing the 1964 hit musical, with Robert Ball of Marlborough as Musical Director and Susan Levine of Keene as Choreographer. It is the first time the Players have had the privilege of working with these three professionals.

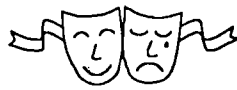

The part of Tevye, a milkman in 1905 Russia, will be played by Greenfield's Chief of Police, Gary Gagnon, who recently starred as The Man Who Came to Dinner and kept things on an even keel in Guys and Dolls, singing "Sit Down, You're Rocking the Boat." Trudy Dean of Hancock has been cast as Golde, his wife.

The story, based on Tevye and His Daughters by Sholom Aleichem, is largely concerned with the marrying off of their three oldest daughters. Jane Winslow, a veteran Player, as Yente the matchmaker thinks a suitable match could be made for one of them with the widowed Lazar Wolf, a middle-aged butcher, played by Fred Roberts. Fred has been a part of Players' productions for many years as actor, technical director, and, most recently, artistic director of George Washington Slept Here.

However, a dream sequence convinces Tevye that the young Tzeitel should marry her childhood friend Motel, the tailor. The young lovers will be played by Jen Krawiecki and Dean Proctor. The supporting cast of actors/singers/dancers is made up of familiar faces and newcomers from Antrim and several surrounding towns. For ticket information, watch the local papers and look for posters.

This year's production of Fiddler will be a celebration of 75 years of local theatre in the Antrim Town Hall, and tribute will be given to some of the people who have kept "Tradition" alive. Although dramatic groups have thrived in Antrim since the middle of the nineteenth century, the late Dorothy Proctor, long-time actress and director, set March 1918 as the birth of the modern day Players. At that time a musical revue was produced for the benefit of the local Red Cross chapter, directed by Charles Prentiss, Miss Sadie Lane and Miss Ethel Proctor. It was advertised as a "Minstrel Show" although the theme was patriotic and the settings war-related. One member of the cast, Nellie Mudge Thornton, who graced the Town Hall stage many times in subsequent Players' productions, still resides in Antrim.

Live Oak Live

The members of the United Church of Lyndeborough welcome all to picnic on the green before the Saturday evening concerts. Beverages will be available starting at 6:30 pm.

Pet News

It's Not Just a Shot

Most pet owners and animal lovers are very good about taking care of their pets. They provide good nutrition, plenty of exercise, and regular grooming to keep them healthy.

Many well-meaning but budget-conscious owners go so far as to give their pets' vaccination shots themselves, but is this really in the pet's best interest?

Vaccines are easy to get and not that hard to give, but most vets do much more than give "Fluffy" a quick jab and let it go at that.

Pets, like people, need to have regular health check-ups. Once a year is good for the first five or six years, but twice a year is probably better in older animals because their bodies change so rapidly as they get older.

A good physical examination can reveal many warning signals of impending health problems waiting to happen. Serious dental disease or other mouth problems can lead to kidney failure, liver disease, or heart disease. Lumps and bumps could be early signs of cancer. Heart murmurs or other abnormal sounds in the chest heard by trained ears with a stethoscope can detect early signs of congestive heart failure and other cardiopulmonary diseases.

Intact pets (non-neutered males and unspayed females) lead the pack with more than their share of problems as do overweight animals.

-T. W. Dowling, V.M.D.

From Our Clubs

Historical Society

The Antrim Historical Society will meet on June 28 at 6 pm at the Presbyterian Church. The annual meeting will be preceded by a real old-fashioned pot-luck supper. Bring your choice of salad, casserole, bread, or dessert. Plans for the 1993-94 year will be presented, which include activities to commemorate the 100th anniversary of the flowering of Main Street.

Since the last edition of the Limrik, a change has been made in the program to follow the business meeting. Martha Pinello, archeologist at Strawberry Banke in Portsmouth, will talk about how period displays are brought together in that museum, with the emphasis on the 1940s. Local anecdotes of that wartime will be presented, and members and guests are encouraged to bring in mementos and souvenirs, such as ration books, pictures, dog-tags, etc.

Everyone is welcome, and dues for next year are payable.

Garden Club

The Antrim Garden Club is a very active group which offers interesting planned programs to anyone interested in gardens and nature. New members are always welcome. Call Evelyn Perry at 588-2113 if you'd like to learn more about the club. The next scheduled meetings with programs are:

Mon., June 28: Garden tour of the John Hay Estate, Newbury, NH

Wed., July 28: Visit the Fragrance Shop, Hopkinton. Refreshments at Elm Brook Area Park.

Mon., Aug. 23: Cook-out at home of Janice Brooks, Brookscroft Lane, Clinton, followed by a plant exchange.

Mon., Sept. 27: Tour of local gardens. Meet in Wayno's Gazebo on Elm Ave.

Woman's Club

The Antrim Woman's Club recently completed another successful year with a luncheon at the Maplehurst Inn. Elected to serve in the 1993-94 year are: Martha Brown, President; Doris Brown, Vice President; Nancy Lovell, Recording Secretary; Ann Dwight, Treasurer; Bonnie Jones, Corresponding Secretary; Susan Taylor, Auditor; Alice Behlman, Parliamentarian; and Ann Miller, Good Will Ambassador.

Woman's Club members will soon be canvassing the town and businesses for their annual calendar drive. Calendars sell for $3, and individual birthdays, anniversaries, or group meeting dates cost 35¢ per listing. Calendar proceeds allow the club to donate to various town activities, including our schools and our scholarship program.

A new fund-raiser for the scholarship fund will soon be in operation. Club member Jeanne McCartin has dressed a beautiful doll named "Desiree" to be raffled off Dec. 14. Desiree will be dressed in Empire style wearing a mink cape and will be on display in town so everyone can appreciate this beautiful creation and buy a raffle ticket.

Lions Club

The recently completed Walk-a-Thon was a great success. The club greatly appreciated the cooperation of Antrim residents.

One of the main goals of the Lions Club is to be of assistance to those who have sight or hearing needs. For anyone who has need for information or help in these areas, please contact Sara or Bob Edwards at 588-6861.

While summer plans are in the process of being formed, the following officers will take over in July: David Cutter, President; Michele Bennett, Secretary; Jane Lamb, Treasurer.

Fire Department

Mark Sunday, August 15, on your calendar for the annual Firemen's Muster. The parade of all participating companies and vehicles will get underway at noon starting at Tenney's Farm Stand on Rt. 202S and ending at the field near the Firehouse. Hamburgers, hot dogs, beverages, and goodies will be available during the muster.

As usual, several neighboring fire companies will be taking part in the muster. All ages love a parade of fire trucks so plan to be on hand. John Leonard and Bill Nichols are co-chairing the event.

Antrim Rescue Squad

Fundraising is underway for a "new" ambulance. Recently all Antrim residents should have received a letter in the mail explaining the replacement of "2A2" and requesting donations.

Because of busy spring schedules, the volunteer members of the Rescue Squad have not made door-to-door calls for donations. It would be greatly appreciated by the squad if donations could be mailed in the provided envelopes. Door-to-door calls will be made at a later date.

Fundraising activities to be held this summer include the following:

- Spaghetti supper to be held Saturday, June 26, from 5-7 pm at the Fire Station on Rt. 31. The dinner will include spaghetti, salad, garlic bread, beverages, and home-made dessert. Enjoy a delicious dinner for $5 (adults) and $2 (children).

- Car washes will be held when weather permits on Sundays at the Antrim branch of the Peterborough Savings Bank.

- A breakfast will be held in July. Watch for the date to be announced.

Thank you for your support!

Antrim Grange

Members of the Antrim Grange recently hosted an exchange meeting with members of the Lions Club in an effort to better understand the inner workings of each organization. Most recently, Grange members enjoyed a road rally meeting in which passengers fulfilled a list of assignments around Antrim, Bennington, and Hillsboro, and recorded each task on video tape.

Summer activities will include attendance at the state Youth Rally and the New England Youth Conference in Connecticut, as well as the traditionally wacky Youth Night #2 meeting on July 21. This is always an open meeting, so anyone brave enough to come is most welcome! The meeting starts at 8 pm at the Grange Hall.

Another activity that is very popular with Antrim Grange members is the Grange Family Weekend which will be July 30, 31, and August 1 at the Hopkinton Fairgrounds. The drawing for the Antrim Grange Building Fund Raffle will take place at this event. Tickets are available from any member.

Hot-to-Trot 4-H Club

The members of the Hot-to-Trot 4-H Club are still on the move. Recent meetings have included instruction on lunge-line, driving, and mane pulling. The club has also welcomed new member, Janelle Cunningham.

The club held a riding clinic, conducted by Cindy Allen, with ten members receiving instruction on basic equitation. Due to its success, another one is planned for July 3. The next regular meeting on June 28 will be a Fitting and Showmanship clinic with Sara and Kathy Yardley as instructors. Members are reminded to wear proper footwear for working around horses.

A field trip was taken to the Myopia Driving Event in Hamilton, MA. The spectators watched the marathon portion of the competition, and particularly enjoyed watching the advanced pair driving competitors go through the water hazard. The top U.S. pair driving teams are competing at events like Myopia all over the country, hoping to be selected to compete at the World Pair Driving Championship in October. For the first time ever, this competition will be held outside Europe, and the Antrim 4-H Club plans to be in Gladstone, NJ, to see the spectacle of twenty nations competing for this honor.

A special good luck wish is offered to these club members and their horses as they show off their skills at the local horse shows this summer: Olivia Ali-Oglu and HS Star Gaza, Meagan Slater and HS Pan-demonium, Ryan Richard and Rox-ambi, Sara Munson and Tank, Missy Landry and I Spot Trouble, Misty Paige and Flicka Dawn, Michelle Lamountain and Voyager, Caitlin McGurty and Shar Khan, and Jennifer McGurty and Rox-ambi.

Business News

Spotlight on...

Tom Lovell

Antrim has its own Investment Advisor, registered with the SEC and the State of New Hampshire. Thomas Lovell is one of the half dozen in the state with experience and who do not receive commissions.

His objective is to help clients learn how to invest, using "no load" mutual funds and discount stock brokers.

At the initial interview your current financial situation is examined. Your goals, experience, and risk tolerance are discussed. Then, possible choices and courses of action are recommended. You are shown how to make changes and invest on your own. Investment or insurance products are not sold.

You are really buying the use of his time and experience in helping you with your investment program.

Tom has over 30 years of experience in financial matters as well as many degrees and awards. He established his own business in Reading, MA, now run by his son. Since moving to Antrim in 1987, he has helped train and supervise mutual life insurance agents. He has been very active as a volunteer teacher at Manchester Prime Time. He spends a great deal of time studying and researching investments.

Interested in gardening and tennis, his other hobbies are boating, reading, and his grandchildren. With his wife, Nancy, as his office manager, his office is in his home at Goodell Road. He makes house calls.

Neither Rain, Nor Snow...

After working as a supervisor in Amherst, NH, and post offices in Salem, NH, and New Jersey, Glenn St. Clair became Antrim's permanent postmaster on March 12. He lives in New Boston with his wife and ten-year-old daughter. Gardening is his hobby. Liking the new Antrim Post Office building, he finds Antrim as friendly a town as New Boston.

Bob Holmes was promoted to the New London post office. Since then, there have been 3 interim postmasters, and other personnel have come and gone. Therefore, Glenn asks that all box patrons have their mail addressed by specific box number. This cuts the time in half when mail is sorted in Manchester due to automation. All sizes of P.O. boxes are available. Contact Glenn at 588-2614.

You may have noticed that recycling is going on in the P.O. lobby. The sign indicates appropriate receptacles for newspapers and magazines.

Please note: The post office will be open on Saturday, July 3, and closed on Monday, July 5.

Revival Shop

The Revival Shop needs volunteers from the community to help run its used clothing consignment shop. Your work as a volunteer helps to provide high-quality, low-cost clothing to residents of local communities. Volunteers may select either Friday or Saturday, and may work either a 10 am-1 pm shift or 1 pm-4 pm shift each month. No prior retail experience or church affiliation is necessary. All ages are welcome. Call Margaret Ellice at 478-3195 if you would like to volunteer your time.

Spring and summer consignments and donations will be cut off on June 26, and fall merchandise will be accepted beginning Friday, July 30. The Revival Shop only accepts items of the highest quality, limited to seven per week. Recently, bags of unsaleable clothing have been left on our doorstep. The Revival Shop staff would be happy to refer donors to other charitable clothing outlets.

When clothes go unsold at The Revival Shop after 60 days in the shop, they are boxed and generally sent to local charitable organizations. If not needed locally, the shop will channel the clothes to needy families elsewhere. Recently, clothes were sent to the Mission at Eastward, a Presbyterian outreach program in rural Maine, and to a women's shelter in New York. Thank you notes from recipients of these clothes attest to the worthiness of these donations.

Salvation Army

You may not know this, but we are a Christian Church which, for many years, has been working with some of the Antrim Churches. For the past two Christmas seasons you have seen our new Salvation Army Kettle in front of Wayno's (thanks, Wayno!). Every penny collected has stayed in Antrim. We are utilizing traditional ways to better help those truly in need. See you next season.

-The Rev. Richard L. Palmer

Hazelwood Farm Summer, 1993 Expressive Arts Day Camp For Children

Session I
Creative Drama
for 7 to 9-year-olds
Monday, July 12 - Friday, July 16, 9:00am to 3:00pm, daily.
Using movement, improvisation and theatre games, we will create a variety of scenes, stories, and characters. We may also use rhythm and music, masks, puppets, props and costumes.

Session II
Creative Writing
for 10 to 12-year-olds
Tuesday, July 20 - Saturday, July 24, 9:00am to 3:00pm, daily.
Writing can open worlds of imagination inside of us. We will get inspired by memories, fantasies, music, nature, overheard remarks, newspapers, and our everyday lives. We will be moving, drawing and acting as well as writing - stories, poems, comic strips, songs and crazy group collaborations.

The camps encourage the unique creative expression of each child and nurture a collaborative, cooperative spirit within the groups. The sessions are held in a rustic, remodeled barn, surrounded by gardens, woods and pastures full of goals, chickens, ducks and geese.

This is our third year. Susan Bartlett, the instructor, has been writing, teaching and directing in the Monadnock region for several years.

$75.00 for each session. Group size is limited to 10 children.
Please register by June 25.
Call 588-2544 for more information.
